

CANADIAN SOUTHERN BAPTIST SEMINARY and COLLEGE

APPLICATION FORM

Canadian National Baptist Convention Tuition Benefit

For members of churches within the CNBC

Thanks to the generosity of churches that make up the Canadian National Baptist Convention (CNBC) and that participate in the Cooperative Program, the Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary & College is able to provide a special tuition benefit to students from those churches. Because of our reciprocal agreement with the Southern Baptist Convention (USA), students from SBC churches also qualify for this tuition benefit.

This tuition benefit is further restricted to students who are fully admitted to an undergraduate or graduate program of the CSBS&C and who have been active members of a CNBC or SBC church for at least one year prior to submitting this application. Students who are eligible for this tuition benefit are also expected to demonstrate consistency in their academic studies.

Application Deadline: see CSBS&C website

Upon approval of this application the student will receive a tuition benefit of $30 per credit hour for one school year only. The student will be responsible to re-apply for each new school year.
